

Alphabet Safari

Kindie
Emily Arrow

Verse

1. S is for snake, hiss - ing, "Hiss, hiss!" Start by draw - ing the let - ter S. For its slith - er - ing bod - y, draw an - oth - er big let - ter S. Then draw a cir - cle for its head. Add an eye and a forked tongue. Yes! Last - ly, fill in the lit - tle things. Snakes need a bunch of scales. Hiss, hiss, hiss!

Chorus

We're on an al - pha - bet sa - fa - ri, draw - ing the an - i - mals that we see.
We're on an al - pha - bet sa - fa - ri.

Verse 2
O is for Owl, hooting, "Hoo, hoo!"
Start by drawing the letter O.
For the ears, add two triangles.
Add a larger one below.
Draw zig-zag lines on both sides.
Those are the wings, you know.
Lastly, fill in the little things:
eyes, a beak, and a bunch of toes, toes, toes!

Chorus

Verse 3
C is for Camel, bumping bump, bump.
Start with a C tipped on its side.
Now you have the camel's big hump.
Add a head and a neck, oh my!
Add a short tail to its rump.
Draw four legs running in stride.
Lastly, fill in the little things.
The camel needs ears and an eye, eye, eye!

Chorus

Verse 4
R is for Rhino, stomping stomp, stomp!
Start by drawing the letter R.
R makes the head and front legs.
For a rhino body, draw a long arc.
Then draw its two back legs
and a wagging tail and say, "Charge!"
Lastly, fill in the little things:
eyes, ears, a horn, and there you are!

Outro

We're on an al - pha - bet sa - fa - ri, draw - ing the an - i - mals that we see. We're on an al - pha - bet sa - fa - ri.