

A Dime

Jazz
Dean Jones

Verse

1. Oh, look at my dime. It's a coin we use for mon - ey, and it's worth ten cents. Yeah, dimes are worth ten cents.

Verse 2
Oh, look at my dime.
It is round, and it is silver,
and it's worth ten cents.
Yeah, dimes are worth ten cents.

Verse 3
Oh, look at my dime.
It has ridges on its edges,
and it's worth ten cents.
Yeah, dimes are worth ten cents.

Verse 4
Oh, look at my dime.
FDR is on its front,
and it's worth ten cents.
Yeah, dimes are worth ten cents.

Bridge

Oh, coins are all mon - ey, and they're meas - ured in cents. Pen - nies are one cent. Nick - els are five cents. Dimes are ten cents. Quar - ters are twen - ty - five cents.

Verse 5
Oh, look at my dime.
Ten dimes equal a dollar.
That is one hundred cents!
Yeah, dimes are worth ten cents.

Verse 6
Oh, look at my dime.
It's the smallest coin of all,
but it's worth ten cents.
Yeah, dimes are worth ten cents.

Verse 7
Oh, look at my dime.
It's a coin we use for money,
and it's worth ten cents.
Yeah, dimes are worth ten cents.

Outro

Oh, look at our dimes. They are worth ten cents!