One eve-ning as the sun went down and the camp-fire was a-burn-ing, down the road came an old ho-bo. His mind was a - churn-ing.
I'm headed for a land that's far a - way, be - side the root beer foun-tain. So come with me. Let's go and see the Big Rock Can - dy Moun-tains.

Verse

1. In the Big Rock Can-dy Moun-tains, there's a land that's fair and bright, where the lol-li-pops grow on bush-es and you sleep out eve-ry night.

Chorus

Where the peo - ple all are hap - py and the sun shines eve - ry day on the birds and the bees and the bub-ble-gum trees. The lem - on - ade springs where the blue - bird sings, in the Big Rock Can - dy Moun-tains.

Verse 2

In the Big Rock Candy Mountains,
you never change your socks.
And the little streams of apple juice
come a-trickling down the rocks.

Chorus

The children laugh and play all day
and never go to school.
There's a lake of stew and pudding, too.
You can paddle all around them in a big canoe
in the Big Rock Candy Mountains.

Verse 3

In the Big Rock Candy Mountains,
you'll forget all your pains.
And when the old folks walk around,
they lean on candy canes.

The fields, they all grow candy corn that reaches twelve feet high where the skies are blue and the water, too.
Where the trees are green and quite a scene
in the Big Rock Candy Mountains.

Outro

I'll see you all be-fore the sug-ar snow - fall in the Big Rock Can - dy Moun-tains!
