Chorus E A E B A E A E B A E To Coda

Eve - ry-bod - y has a bod - y. Bod - ies play and work and walk. And eve - ry bod - y gives us words to help us when we talk.

Verse A E A E A B

1. Point to your back. Can you move your back a-round? Can you sit in the back, way, way down on the ground? Two ver - y dif - ferent mean - ings with one sim - ple sound! Your back is be - hind you. It's where you touch a chair. When you move back, it's far - ther o - ver there.

E A B A B A B A E

Chorus

Verse 2

Point to your foot.
Can you move your foot around?
Can you lift it up a foot,
a foot above the ground?

Two very different meanings
with one simple sound!

Your foot is where you can wiggle a toe.
A foot has inches
and shows how far you go.

Chorus

Verse 3

Point to your hand.
Can you wave your hand around?
Can you hand me a book?
Can you hand it up and down?

Two very different meanings
with one simple sound!

Your hand has fingers.
You can move all about.
When you hand a friend a pencil,
you really help them out.

Verse 4

Point to your gums.
Do you brush them up and down?
Can you buy me some gum
from the candy store in town?

Two very different meanings
with one simple sound!

Without our gums our teeth
would be in trouble.
When I chew a piece of gum,
I can blow a great big bubble.

Chorus (To Coda)
