

Butterfly Floats

World
Mark Oblinger

Chorus

D7 G7 D7

In - sects are small an - i - mals with two an - ten - nae, hard out - er shells. In - sects have wings and six legs, three bod - y parts. They hatch from eggs.

B^b7 A7 G7 D7 N.C. D7 G7 A7 D7 G7 A7

Bees, grass - hop - pers, ants, and but - ter - flies, how man - y in - sects can you spy?

Verse

G7 D7 A7 G7 A7 G7 D7 G7 A7 D7 G7 A7

1. Hon - ey - bee turns nec - tar in - to hon - ey. She pol - li - nates the plants that we eat. Buzz, buzz, buzz, buzz, buzz, buzz! Buzzzzzz!

Verse 2

Grasshoppers jumping here and there,
with strong legs, they leap into the air.
Hippity, hop! Hippity, hop, hop, hop!

Chorus

Bridge G7 D7 G7 D7 G7

Do the in - sect boo - gie, and jump all a - round! Move like a lar - va, and wig - gle on the ground! Creep like a cat - er - pil - lar, crawl like an ant, float like a but - ter - fly. Do an in - sect dance! Do it!

D7 A7 B^b7 A7 G7 A7 D7 G7 A7 D7 G7 A7 D7 G7 A7

Verse 3

Butterflies float on by, fluttering in the sky.
Falalalala, falalalala, la!

Verse 4

Ants march up a tall tree.
Down they come, carrying a leaf.
Left, right! Left, right! Left, right! Left, right!

Chorus