

Camels Close Their Noses: Desert Animals

Chorus

Leave out an s in "des-ert," and in-stead of a cake, you will have a "de-sert," which is a ver-y dry place.

Verse

1. Cam-els close their nos - es to keep out sand and dust. They have a hump or two, which pro-vides a spare lunch.

Verse 2

Rattlesnakes shake their tails to warn everyone away.
Some snakes blend in with the sand
to hide and wait for prey.

Verse 3

Roadrunners don't need to fly
when they are hungry.
They run after lizards and snakes,
hunting at top speed.

Verse 4

A desert tortoise hides in its shell
instead of running away.
And it will burrow underground on hot desert days.

Chorus

Meer-kats stand on guard, a-round their col-o-ny. Each mem-ber works to- geth-er to pro- tect their fam-i-lies.
