Verse 2

He ran and ran through a field of hay,
where a cow mooed, "Cookiemán, come my way."
Some piggies trotted toward the Gingerbread Man, too.
But he was much too fast for that four-legged crew.

Chorus

Run, run, run as fast as you can.
You can't catch me. I'm the Gingerbread Man!
I ran from a cow and some piggies, too.
I'll outrun every one of you!

Verse 3

He ran to a school, where the kids all play,
and the boys and the girls all skipped his way.
They tried to get a bite of that tasty cookie man.
But he skipped, and he hopped, and away he ran.

Chorus

Run, run, run as fast as you can.
You can't catch me. I'm the Gingerbread Man!
I ran from some boys and from some girls, too.
I'll outrun every one of you!

Verse 4

He ran to a river, so fast and wide,
where a sly little fox offered him a ride.
The fox swam across, the cookie on his back,
and then gobbled him up for a gingerbread snack.

Chorus

Run, run, run as fast as you can.
A fox is smarter than the Gingerbread Man,
who ran from the oven, and he wouldn't stop.
But he couldn't outrun that tricky fox.
