

Knock, Knock, Moo!

Americana
Mark Oblinger

Verse C

1. Ear - ly in the morn - ing, the farm - er went to do his chores.

As he worked, he heard a loud knock on the big barn door.

Chorus

Knock! Knock! Who's there? In - ter - rupt - ing cow. In - ter - rupt - ing cow— MOOOOO!

Verse 2

Next he had to collect
all the eggs in the chicken coop.
While filling his basket,
the farmer heard a knock or two.

Chorus

Knock! Knock!
Who's there?
Interrupting rooster.
Interrupting—
COCK-A-DOODLE-DOO!

Verse 3

He went to the stable
to brush his favorite mare.
For her, he had a treat.
Then a loud knock gave him a scare.

Chorus

Knock! Knock!
Who's there?
Interrupting horse.
Interrupting—
NEIGH! NEIGH!

Verse 4

He went to the pigpen
to feed his hungry sows some slop.
The pigs began to squeal
because they heard a loud knock knock.

Chorus

Knock! Knock!
Who's there?
Interrupting pig.
Interrupting pig—
OINK!

Outro

The farm - er stood on his porch. His an - i - mals gath - ered a - round.

Eve - ry - one was smil - ing. The farm - er e - ven laughed out loud.