The parade is coming, I hear the tramping,
footsteps draw nearer, boots are stamping.
Veterans march, all in a line,
their heads held high, their medals shine.

Chorus

Verse 3

That isn't all, for summer is here.
The pool is ready. Give a big cheer!
Put on your suit and make a dash.
See who makes the biggest splash.

Chorus

Verse 4

Summertime starts on Memorial Day.
We can't wait to go out to run and play.
But first on this day we'll honor the brave.
We won't forget the lives they gave.
