

My Family, Your Family, Our Families

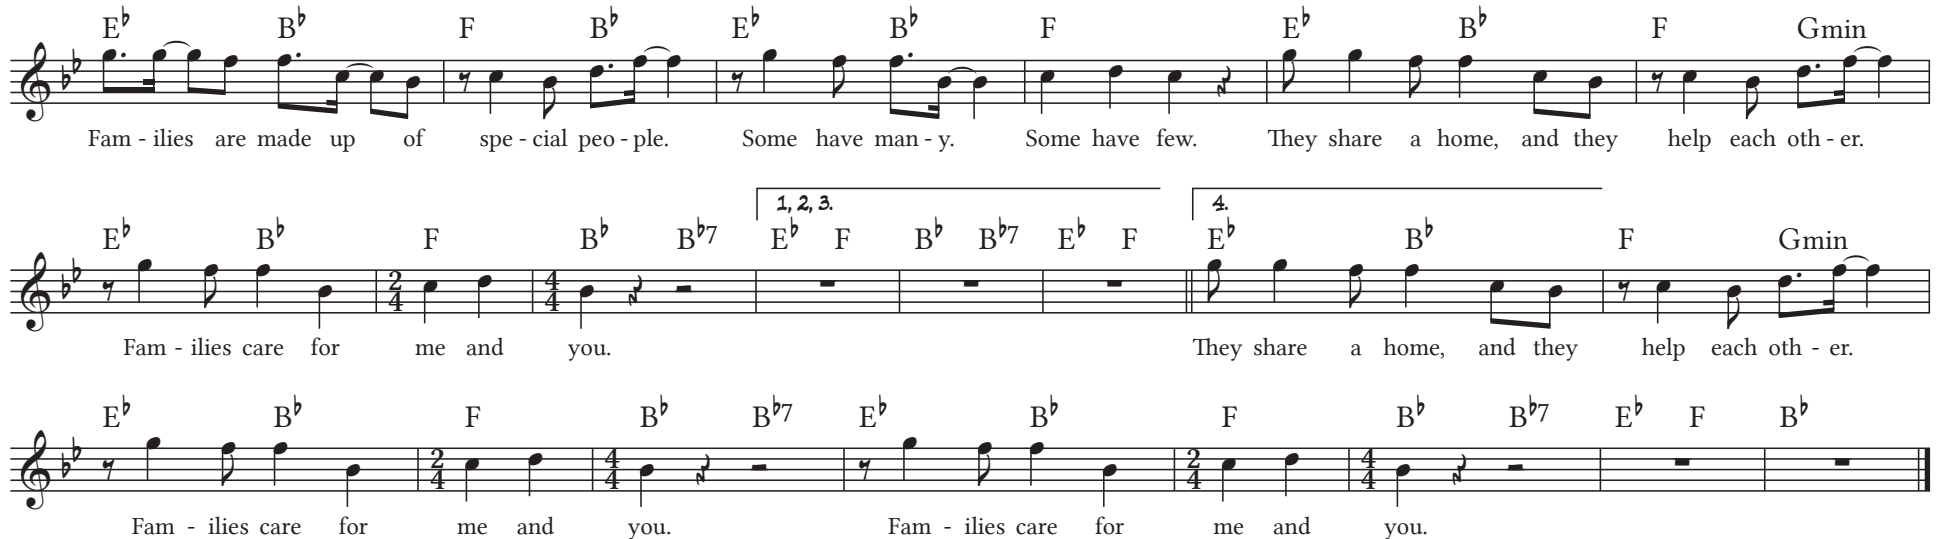

World
Mark Oblinger

Verse

1. This is my moth - er. This is my fa - ther. We live to - geth - er in one place. I have a broth - er.
Here is my sis - ter. All as one, we share this space.

Chorus

Fam - ilies are made up of spe - cial peo - ple. Some have man - y. Some have few. They share a home, and they help each oth - er.
Fam - ilies care for me and you. They share a home, and they help each oth - er.
Fam - ilies care for me and you. Fam - ilies care for me and you.

Verse 2

My house is home to a lot of people:
Mom and Dad and Nana, too.
My grandpa lives here. So does my auntie.
And my cousins? I have a few.

Chorus

Verse 3

My family has just three people in it:
me and Grandma and Granddad.
My friend, he lives with his foster mother.
She gives him hugs when he is sad.

Chorus

Verse 4

My mom lives with me. My dad lives elsewhere.
We have two homes where we belong.
Sometimes it's hard, but we love each other and we keep our family strong.

Chorus
