Musical score for the song "Good Sports Play Fair". The score is written in treble clef with a key signature of three flats (B-flat, E-flat, A-flat) and a 4/4 time signature. The melody is accompanied by a bass line. The lyrics are: "1. Time to play! We will share. We won't cheat. We're play-ing fair. When you cheat, the game is no fun for an-y-one. Play-ing fair is much more fun. Fair means fun for eve-ry - one!" The score includes various musical notations such as notes, rests, and accidentals. Above the first staff, the following chords are indicated: A^b, F^{min}, D^b, E^b, D^b, A^b, E^b, A^b, F^{min}, D^b, A^b. Above the second staff, the following chords are indicated: E^b, D^b, E^b, A^b, D^b, E^b, A^b, D^b, E^b. Above the third staff, the following chords are indicated: E^b, D^b, E^b, A^b, D^b, E^b, A^b. A box containing the text "1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7." is placed above the second staff, and another box containing "A^b" is placed above the third staff.

Verse 2

Grownups teach us what to do.
We start out by learning rules.
When you cheat,
the game is no fun for anyone.
Playing fair is much more fun.

Verse 3

Rules help keep us safe, you see.
No one wants an injury.
When you cheat,
the game is no fun for anyone.
Playing fair is much more fun.

Verse 4

There's a foul! The whistle blows.
If someone cheats, the whole field knows.
When you cheat,
the game is no fun for anyone.
Playing fair is much more fun.

Verse 5

Breaking rules is not allowed.
Playing right makes our coach proud.
When you cheat,
the game is no fun for anyone.
Playing fair is much more fun.

Verse 6

If we mess up, we don't fight.
We step up to make it right.
When you cheat,
the game is no fun for anyone.
Playing fair is much more fun.

Verse 7

Take the field with the rest.
Try again and play your best.
When you cheat,
the game is no fun for anyone.
Playing fair is much more fun.

Verse 8

Win or lose, we don't care.
We feel proud when we play fair.
When you cheat,
the game is no fun for anyone.
Playing fair is much more fun.

(spoken) Fair means fun for everyone!
