

Reptile Race

Hip Hop
Drew Temperante

Verse

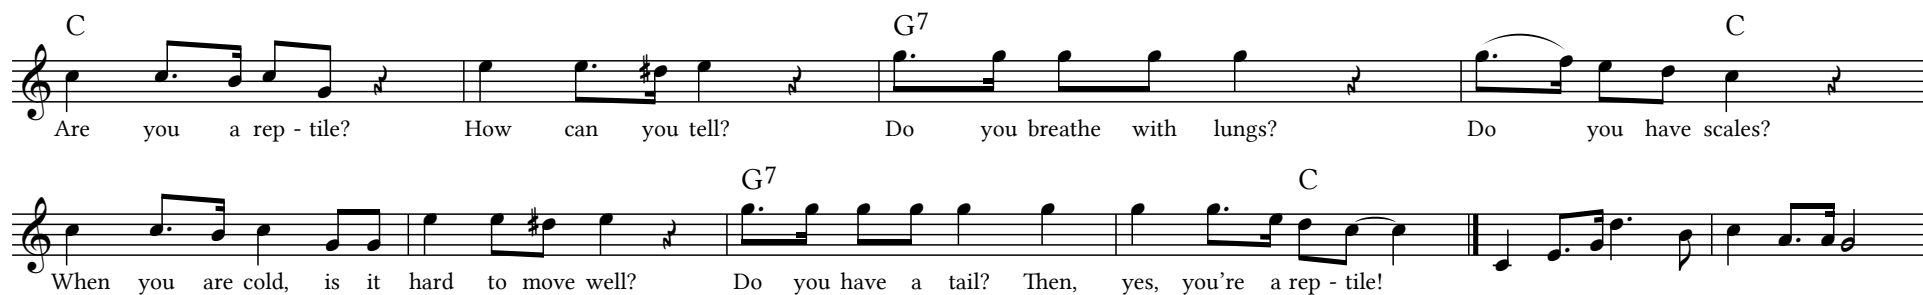

1. Tor - toise knew her grand - pa had raced a hare and won, and she thought a rep - tile race would be a lot of fun.

Verse 2

The reptiles got together
for their warm-ups in the sun.
If reptiles are not warm enough,
it's hard to move and run.

Chorus

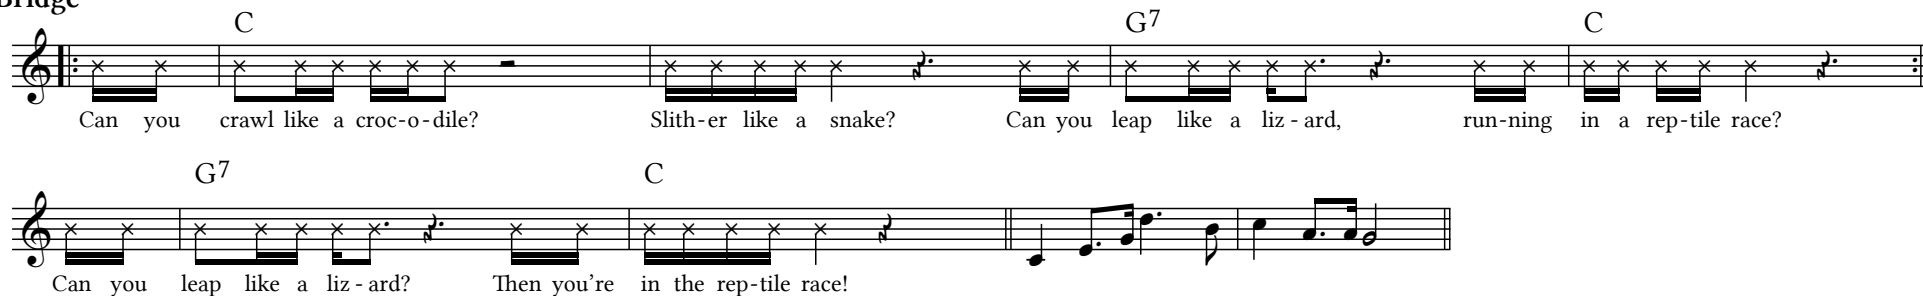

Are you a rep - tile? How can you tell? Do you breathe with lungs? Do you have scales?
When you are cold, is it hard to move well? Do you have a tail? Then, yes, you're a rep - tile!

Verse 3

The snakes slithered without feet.
The lizards ran, and they leaped.
Alligators, some turtles, too,
could have crawled but swam straight through.

Chorus

Bridge

Can you crawl like a croc-o-dile? Slith-er like a snake? Can you leap like a liz-ard, run-ning in a rep-tile race?
Can you leap like a liz-ard? Then you're in the rep-tile race!

Verse 4

At stops, the turtles and lizards
could snack on plants and bugs,
but alligators eat turtles,
and snakes eat lizards. Ugh!

Verse 5

The reptiles all went on their way.
The race was done. They did not stay.
Everyone went home for dinner,
and every reptile was a winner!

Chorus
