

Sheila the Shy Sheep

Hip Hop
Drew Temperante

Chorus

D D/C D D/C

Shei - la the shy sheep, Shei - la the shy sheep, she was all white and shag - gy.

D D/C D D/C

Shei - la the shy sheep, Shei - la the shy sheep, she was a real sharp cook - ie.

To Coda

Verse

D D/C D D/C

1. One day, Shei - la was sip - ping on a milk - shake and eat - ing short - bread off a pol - ka - dot dish. Then out of the shad - ows walked Shane the shark. He would - n't share. Yeah, he was a re - al mean fish.

D D/C D D/C

1 D 2, 3, 4. D D/C D D/C D

Verse 2

Shane flashed his teeth, and everyone shuddered.
"I'm here to nosh on everything in this shop."
There was a hush, then a shuffling of feet.
Whoosh! Out the door dashed an animal mob.
Only Sheila was left, sipping on her milkshake.

Verse 3

Sheila and Shane were having a showdown,
but she didn't even blush, shake, or shiver.
Shane gnashed his teeth and swished his tail around.
He was about to lash out and shout at her.
But Sheila calmly put a finger to her lips.

Chorus

Bridge

D D/C D D/C D D/C D D/C D

Then she sang, "Shush sh - sh. Sh - sh sh - sh sh - sh." "Shush sh - sh. Sh - sh sh - sh sh - sh." "Just hush and lis - ten."

Verse 4

"I wish you weren't so selfish," Sheila said.
Shane looked down at his shoes and turned reddish.
Sheila gave the ashamed shark a hug as he said,
"I was just hungry for mushrooms and relish."
And then Shane laughed because he was ticklish.

Chorus

Coda

D D/C D D/C N.C.

Spoken: "Yeah, she was shy, but she wasn't sheepish!"