

The Story of Stanley and Steven

Pop
Steven C Music

Verse

A F#min Bmin E A F#min Bmin E G

1. Now, come hear the sto - ry of Stan - ley and his broth - er. Oh, Stan - ley had a broth - er and his name was Ste - ven. Come hear the sto - ry of

D/F# Bmin E

Stan - ley's lit - tle broth - er. Oh, Stan - ley's favor - ite thing was to bug poor Ste - ven. Then

Verse 2
While Stanley stared at Steven, he would make big bug eyes.
He'd stare at him and stomp around and stick out his tongue.
While Stanley stood and stared, he made the biggest bug eyes.
He'd stare and stomp around until Steven had enough!

Pre Chorus

A D A/C# Bmin11 Out of time

Ste - ven would yell, "Stop. Stop it. Stop it!" "It? Stop It? Stop what?" Stan - ley had to ask.
(Stan - ley) (Ste - ven)

Chorus a Tempo

E a Tempo E/D A Asus2 A/F# A/C# E E/D A C#min/G#

"Oh, what is this great, mys - te - ri - ous It? How do I stop It, and what does It do?"

F#min C#min D A/C# Bmin D A/C# Fmaj7 N.C.

Ste - ven just sat there, all still as he stewed, and Stan - ley laughed as he sang out of tune.
(Stan - ley)

E E/D A Asus2 A/F# A/C# E E/D A C#min/G# F#min C#min D A/C#

"Oh, what is this great, mys - te - ri - ous It? A beast that stings or a mon - ster that stomps? Or is It a stout steg - o - saur - us with stee - ly horns that will poke us?" Ste - ven just sat there, all still as he stewed, and Stan - ley laughed as he sang out of tune.

Bmin To Coda A F#min Bmin E G D/F# F N.C.

(Stan - ley)

Verse 3
Stick around, and hear Steven's side of our story.
Oh, he did some stuff to bug his big brother, too.
Won't you stay and hear Steven's side of our story?
He did stealthy stuff like sneaking into Stanley's room.

Verse 4
Steven stepped up on a stool and started to stir things up.
He'd stick socks here and stow toys there, moving Stanley's stuff.
Steven stood up on a stool and messed up Stanley's things.
He'd stack stuff everywhere until his brother had enough!

Pre Chorus

Chorus

Coda

A F#min Bmin E G D/F# F A

They both just sat there, all still as they stewed. Then the broth - ers laughed and sang out of tune.