

with your feet. You can use the kick drum to keep the beat.

Verse 2

Tappity-tap, feel the drumhead move. Thin and tight, it gets into the groove. It shakes up and down over a hollow body. The sound grows bigger, booming loudly.

Chorus

Verse 3

Xylophones sing with bright, ringing notes. Out from tubes below the music floats. When mallet strikes make wooden keys buzz, happy people hear the songs they love.

Chorus

Verse 4

Big bells, little bells, how do they ring? Some rumble loudly and some go ting. Big bells shake slow, sounding deep and low. Small ones move quick. High notes sweetly flow.
