Verse 2

Oh, the rabbit bragged he was fast.
He told everyone with glee,
“When I run as fast as I can,
no one can catch me.”

Verse 3

There was a pokey turtle
with a slow and steady pace.
He was tired of all the rabbit’s boasts,
so he challenged him to a race.

Verse 4

The rabbit started off fast.
The turtle was slow and steady.
The rabbit looked back and began to laugh,
“You’ll never catch up to me.”

Verse 5

The rabbit was far ahead,
so he thought he could relax.
As the turtle kept going, steady and slow,
that rabbit took a nap.

Verse 6

When the rabbit woke, it was late.
The turtle was about to win.
The rabbit took off as fast as he could but couldn’t catch up to him.

Verse 7

All the other animals cheered
as the turtle won the race.
That bragging rabbit could not beat his slow and steady pace.

Outro

So you can brag a - bout your skills, but re - mem-ber this mor - al too:
Suc - cess comes not from what you say but how your tal-ents are used! how your tal-ents are used!
