

Tim the Time-Traveling Porcupine

Jazz
Mark Oblinger

Verse

A D A

Tim, the prick - ly por - cu - pine, and his friend Pip, the snub - nosed swine, saw the wiz - ard Mag - ic E perched up in a tall pine tree.

A D A

Mag - ic E of - fered Tim a wish - one thing he want - ed could be his. Tim wished to trav - el back in time, to when the di - nos were a - live.

Pre Chorus

E D A

"Eas - y as can be," said Mag - ic E. Then he be - gan to dance and sing.

Chorus

D A D A

"Al - la - ke - zee! Ke - zi - ke - zie! I bit a bite of ap - ple pie. Al - la - ke - zee! Ke - zi - ke - zie! I slid down a slide from high in the sky.

E D A

Al - la - ke - zee! Ke - zi - ke - zie! With an E, I'll turn Tim in - to time."

E D A To Coda

The wiz - ard be - gan to twirl his wand and then with a flick of his wrist - poof! Tim got his time - trav - eling wish.

Verse

Next, Magic E offered Pip a wish—one thing Pip wanted would be his. Pip had hoped to play a pipe, to make his friends sing and smile so bright.

Pre Chorus

"Easy as can be," said Magic E. Then he began to dance and sing.

Chorus

"Al-la-ke-zee! Ke-zi-ke-zie! I bit a bite of apple pie.

Al-la-ke-zee! Ke-zi-ke-zie! I slid down a slide from high in the sky.

Al-la-ke-zee! Ke-zi-ke-zie! With an E, I'll turn Pip into pipe."

The wizard began to twirl his wand and then with a flick of his wrist—poof! Pip got his pipe-playing wish.

♦ Coda

A D A D A

"Al - la - ke - zee! Ke - zi - ke - zie! I bit a bite of ap - ple pie. Al - la - ke - zee! Ke - zi - ke - zie! I slid down a slide from high in the sky.

E D A :

Al - la - ke - zee! Ke - zi - ke - zie! With an E, I'll turn Tim in - to time. Al - la - ke - zee! Ke - zi - ke - zie! With an E, I'll turn Pip in - to pipe."