

Types of Precipitation

Americana
Erik Koskinen

Chorus

C G

Rain and snow, sleet and hail, all wa - ter drops from the sky. Pre - cip - i - ta - tion comes in four for - ma - tions from clouds float - ing by. by.

1, 2, 3. C 4. C C G C

Verse

F C F C

1. In a cloud, drop - lets com - bine. They get heav - y. Down they fall.

G C

Pit - ter - pat - ter, pit - ter - pat - ter. Rain taps on the wall.

Verse 2

In a cloud, ice crystals make flakes
so fat they cannot float.
Flutter-glide. Flutter-glide.
Snow falls on the road.

Verse 3

From a cloud, wet raindrops fall.
But they freeze on their way down.
Plunkety-plunk. Plunkety-plunk.
Icy sleet hits the ground.

Chorus

Verse 4

In thunder clouds, rain starts to freeze into balls of ice that grow and grow.
Crash-bang! Clackety-clang!
Hail knocks on the window.

Bridge

F C F C

Hear the rain splat, rat - a - tat - tat! Feel the cold snow from your head to your toes.

F C F G

See the slick sleet as it bounc - es on the street. Make a mad dash when the hail starts to crash.
