

Winter: The Coldest Season of All!

Folk
Mark Oblinger

Chorus

Win - ter, win - ter, snow - flakes fall. It's the cold - est sea - son of all. Snow forms a blan - ket of white that co - vers the ground day and night. day and night.

Verse

1. Dur - ing this chil - ly time of year, the sky is bright, the air is clear. The days are short and nights are long. Snow - fall is heav - y and winds are strong.

Verse 2

We bundle up when we go out.
We need hats and mittens, there's no doubt!
With snow boots on so we can play
in slushy puddles along the way.

Verse 3

It's time for fun out in the snow.
So grab your sled and skis. Let's go!
We'll visit an ice rink to skate around,
then build a snowman plump and round.

Chorus

Winter, winter, snowflakes fall.
It's the coldest season of all.
Snow forms a blanket of white
that covers the ground day and night.

Verse 4

We sit by a fire all nice and warm,
drinking cocoa while it storms.
Outside the winter wind is blowing.
Inside our rosy cheeks are glowing.

Bridge

In win - ter, some an - i - mals can be found hid - ing in caves or un - der - ground. Some hi - ber - nate, sleep - ing day and night, wait - ing for warm spring sun - light.

Chorus

Winter, winter, snowflakes fall.
It's the coldest season of all.
Snow forms a blanket of white
that covers the ground day and night.
