

You Take a Bath

Verse

1. You just got home from play - ing tag. You're tired. You're sweat - y. And you're start - ing to drag. You had a lot of fun play - ing in the dirt. You're cov - ered in mud. It's e - ven un - der your shirt!

Chorus

You know what you have to do! You take a bath. What do you do? You take a bath!
Scrub your ears and neck and face. And rinse your - self all o - ver the place. Yeah, take a bath.

Verse 2

You just finished dinner with your mom and dad.
It was the messiest meal you've ever had.
The need to get clean is oh so clear.
You have macaroni and cheese in your ear.

Chorus

You know what you have to do!
You take a bath. What do you do? You take a bath!
Scrub your ears and neck and face.
And rinse yourself all over the place. Yeah, take a bath.

Bridge

It's the end of the day, and you're feel - ing grim - y. Your hair's a bit stink - y, your toes a bit slim - y.
Dur - ing the day, germs found their way on - to your skin. Get some soap. Fill the tub. Read - y to jump in?

Chorus

You know what you have to do!
You take a bath. What do you do? You take a bath!
Scrub your ears and neck and face.
And rinse yourself all over the place. Yeah, take a bath.

Spoken

Water, soap. Wash, rinse.
Water, soap. Wash, rinse.
Water, soap. Wash, rinse.

Chorus

You know what you have to do!
You take a bath. What do you do? You take a bath!
Wash yourself from head to toe.
And surely everyone will know you took a bath!
