PROCEDURES/ACTIVITIES

Preparation:

Tell students that today they are going to be learning about the different types of speech.

The class is first going to be introduced to the parts of speech through books and song and then will be asked for examples of the different parts of speech.

The examples will be written down on flashcards and placed into paper bags in order to play a game after the parts of speech are introduced. Hand out four flashcards to each student.

Lesson Procedure:

1. To introduce adjectives read Bumpy, Bright, Blue: What Adjectives Do!. Have students sing along with the book and afterwards ask them for some examples for adjectives.
2. Once students have a good understanding of what adjectives are ask them to write down one adjective on one of their flashcards. Pass a paper bag around with the word adjective on it and have students place their flashcards in the paper bag.
3. To introduce nouns read Farmers, Firefighters, and Teachers: They Are Nouns!. Have students sing along with the book and afterwards ask them for examples of nouns.
4. Once students have a good understanding of what nouns are ask them to write down one noun on one of their flashcards. Pass a paper bag around with the word noun on it and have students place their flashcards in the paper bag.
5. To introduce pronouns read He, She, Me, We: Pronouns Replace Nouns!. Have students sing along with the book and afterwards ask them for examples of pronouns.
6. Once students have a good understanding of what pronouns are ask them to write down one pronoun on one of their flashcards. Pass a paper bag around with the word pronoun on it and have students place their flashcards in the paper bag.
7. To introduce verbs read Kick! Jump! Throw! Run! Verbs Are Action Words!. Have students sing along with the book and afterwards ask them for examples of verbs.
8. Once students have a good understanding of what verbs are ask them to write down one verb on one of their flashcards. Pass a paper bag around with the word verb on it and have students place their flashcards in the paper bag.
9. Now that each paper bag is filled choose one word from each paper bag, and ask students to use the words to form a sentence.
10. Play until you have used up all of the flashcards. If the verb needs to be conjugated to make a sentence work, or you need to include articles like "the", help your kids incorporate them into the sentences.

Technology Extension:

Using StoryboardThat Parts of Speech Activity, have the students show the different parts of speech with this digital tool. All of the directions for this activity are included on the StoryboardThat website.

Students can also use the magnetic poetry option in Storybird to create poetry using a certain part of speech. For example, have them find an illustration of a noun and then add as many nouns to the top of that.

Music and Art Extension:

To prepare for the art project, students will be learning all four of the songs in this series. Start out by reading and singing the book together. This can be sang with the classroom teacher, teacher librarian, and related arts teachers. Also, send the link home to the music online. The students can sing with their parents too.

Students can take magazines and newspapers to search for certain parts of speech. They can cut things out including words, phrases and images to create collages on paper. This can be done as individual, group or class pieces of work. When done with the collage for the bottom layer, have students paint a picture over the top.

Student Portrait Project... Students will find words, phrases and pictures in magazines and newspapers that describe them. Perhaps they look for all of the adjectives that describe them or all of the action verbs. They will then use these to create a collage on a big piece of paper. When they are finished, students will paint themselves over the top of the words. This can also be done as a group on a long piece of butcher paper. Have all of the students contribute to the collage by finding the parts of speech you are focusing on. Then have each add their painted portrait to the top.

Language Extension:

Students love to do MadLibs. Plus they are a great way to reinforce the parts of speech. Make sure that students are familiar with the MadLibs format. Then have students create their own fill-in-the-blank tall tales for their friends to complete. Create a class book of fill-in-the-blank tales and have students work in groups to complete them.

If students need more ideas for their fill-in-the-blank tall tales visit MadLibs and Wacky Web Tales.
