

Boo Who?

Jazz
Musical Youth Productions

Verse

1. Bet-ty and four friends were play - ing hide-and-see-k. While they hid, Bet - ty count - ed. She did-n't peek.

Ra-chel ran up - stairs and hid in a bed-room. Mo-ments lat-er, she heard a boom-ing boom boom!

Chorus

Knock! Knock! Who's there? Boo. Boo who? Don't be scared, and don't you cry. It's just me, and I found you!

Verse 2

Peter snuck around and hid in a closet
with some smelly shoes, umbrellas, and jackets.
He thought Betty would never find his hiding spot,
but then on the door came a knocking knock knock!

Chorus

Verse 3

Steven was sneaky, as quiet as a mouse.
He snuck outside and crawled into the dog's house.
He hid behind Betty's black Labrador pup.
They were both surprised by a thumping thump thump!

Chorus

Verse 4

Pam hid so well, she was the last to be found.
She was under a table, not making a sound.
To find her, Pam thought Betty would need a map,
but then from above came a rapping rap rap!

Chorus

"Now it's my turn to hide!" And she quick - ly snuck a - way.