Chorus

B^{b7} C⁷ F B^{b7} F B^{b7}

A noun is a thing, but what is it like? That's what ad - jec - tives do. They tell us if some - thing's

F B^{b7} F D⁷ G⁷ B^{b7} F G⁷ B^{b7} F C⁷

bump - y or bright. They de - scribe if it's hair - y, scar - y, or blue. That's what ad - jec - tives do! (That's what ad - jec - tives do!)

Verse 1, 2

F B^{b7} C⁷ B^{b7} F G⁷ B^{b7} F

1. In the gar-den, what do you see? Or-ange, hard, and heav-y, big and round with bump-y skin— these ad - jec - tives de - scribe a pump-kin!

Chorus

Verse 2

At the stadium, what do you hear?
A noisy band and loud crowd cheers.
Exciting or fast, thrilling or tame,
these adjectives describe a football game!

Verse 3

F B^{b7} C⁷ B^{b7} C⁷

2. Fresh, de - li - cious, tang - y, and sweet, tell me a - bout a fall - time treat. It's red and shin - y with smooth skin. Taste the yum - my juice drip - ping down your chin.

B^{b7} F G⁷ C⁷ N.C. G⁷ B^{b7} F G⁷ B^{b7} F

Smell the fruit - y scent. Hear the crunch - y sound. These ad - jec - tives de - scribe an ap - ple! And an ap - ple is a noun!

Chorus

Bridge

F B^b C⁷ F F B^{b7} C⁷ B^{b7} G⁷ B^{b7} F G⁷ B^{b7} F

What is the sea-son? Can you tell? Lis - ten to the ad - jec - tives, and you'll know quite well.

Bridge ctd. (spoken)

There are fun football games, colorful leaves, orange pumpkins, and a chilly breeze.
These adjectives describe the season that we call fall!

Chorus

Outro (spoken)
Now tell us some adjectives
that help describe YOU!
