Verse

1. Gold - i - locks came up - on a co - zy house. No one was home, not e - ven a mouse. She o - pened the door and went in - side. She could - n't be - lieve her big blue eyes. On the ta - ble sat three por - ridge bowls, one too hot, the oth - er too cold, but the lit - tl - est bowl was oh so right. She slurped it up in one big bite!

Chorus

Knock, knock, it's great to be Gold - ie. Knock, knock, here comes Gold - i - locks, hop - ping and skip - ping through the woods. A brave ex - plor - er with gold - en locks!

Verse 2

Goldie sat in a big hard chair,
then tried the soft one over there.
The littlest chair looked a perfect fit,
but it broke when she went to sit.

Goldie went to rest her sleepy head.
Upstairs she found three empty beds,
the first too hard, the next too soft.
The last was perfect, and she drifted off.

Chorus

Verse 3

Three bears came home, and what was there?
An empty bowl and a broken chair,
Goldilocks snoring some great big snores.
So they woke her up with some great big roars!

She opened her eyes, and who was there?
Papa and Mama and Baby Bear.
Goldie jumped up and ran out the door.
The three bears wouldn't see her anymore.
