

The Dog and the Bone

Americana
Erik Koskinen

Verse

1. A lit - tle dog had found a bone, and to his home he car - ried it. He hur - ried fast a - cross a bridge to find a spot to bur - y it.

The musical notation for the first verse consists of two staves in 4/4 time. The first staff contains the melody with lyrics underneath. The second staff contains the guitar accompaniment with chord symbols (F, C, F, C, F, B^b, C, F) above the notes.

Chorus

Be glad for the things you've got. Don't reach for some-one else - 's. You may lose the things you have if you're greed - y or self - ish.

The musical notation for the chorus consists of two staves in 4/4 time. The first staff contains the melody with lyrics underneath. The second staff contains the guitar accompaniment with chord symbols (B^b, F, B^b, F, C, F) above the notes. A double bar line is present after the second measure of the second staff, with a first ending bracket labeled '1, 2, 3.' above it, leading to a C chord, and a second ending bracket labeled '4.' above it, leading to a C chord, F chord, and F6 chord.

Verse 2

On the bridge, the dog looked down
to where the water eddied.
There he saw another dog,
Another bone he carried.

Chorus

Verse 3

“That dog has a bigger bone!”
the dog thought. “And I want it.
If I take it, I’ll have two!”
His mouth opened to grab it.

Chorus

Verse 4

Splash! His bone fell in the stream.
“Oh no,” the sad dog groaned.
“’Twas a reflection all along,
and now I’ve lost my bone.”

Chorus
