Big or small, short or tall, our homes, they are the same. They keep us safe from a storm, or snow or sun or rain.

Verse 2

An apartment is a home
in a building oh so tall.
It's cozy high above the street,
with neighbors down the hall.

Chorus

Verse 3

Is your home made of grass, a hut so round and small?
There's room enough for everyone within its woven walls.

Chorus

Verse 4

Adobe homes stand strong upon the desert sands.
Their thick mud walls will keep you cool
in hot southwestern lands.
