

The Town Mouse and the Country Mouse

Folk Pop
Dean Jones

Verse

1. With her cous-in in the coun-try a town mouse vis - it-ed one day. They ate a-corns and drank some wa-ter. The town mouse squeaked, "This food is plain."

mouse."

dine.

fled.

Chorus

A qui-et life that's full of safe - ty can be as good as fan-cy things. Don't run af - ter food and rich - es if lots of dan - ger that life brings.

brings.

Verse 2

"Come to lunch now at my rich house,"
the town mouse said. "We eat so fine.
I'll serve you cakes instead of acorns."
So they traveled there to dine.

Chorus

Verse 3

At the town house they ate chocolate, doughnuts, cheese, and buttered bread.
Then two dogs burst through the doorway.
The frightened mice jumped up and fled.

Chorus

Verse 4

The country mouse said, "Goodbye, cousin.
I'm returning to my house.
I've decided I like safety,
and plain food suits a country mouse."

Chorus